ROMANS
6:23

God so loved the world.

And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

HEBREWS
9:22

Also for Adam and his wife the LORD God made tunics of skin, and clothed them.

GENESIS
3:21

God instituted ritual sacrifice for temporary reprieve – even Cain and Able had spiritual revelation concerning sin offerings.

For the law, having a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect.

HEBREWS
10:1

For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins.

HEBREWS
10:4

But this Man (Jesus), after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God.

HEBREWS
10:12

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

COMMENTARY

God so loved the world that He could not stand to be eternally separated from mankind. He knew what He needed to do ... pay for the sin Himself. The scriptures tell us that without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin. Man's sin required a blood sacrifice. When God found Adam and Eve, separated from Him by their sin in the Garden, the scriptures indicate that God sacrificed an animal and, no doubt, used the blood to cover the sin and clothed them with the skins. From that time forward, God instituted a regimen of sacrifice and ultimately made a law whereby He ritualistically accepted the blood of bulls and goats as temporary payment for specific sins.

It was impossible, however, for the blood of bulls and goats to free mankind from the eternal grip of sin. If not, they would not have ceased to be offered. Only one thing could pay for the sins of all mankind forever ... the pure blood of a perfect sacrifice, holy
